Men Laid Off.

Men Laid Off.

The Southern shops yesterday laid off several men. In the machine shops, the blacksmith shop, the paint shop and the car department there were several men notified that their services would not be needed for some time to come.

The reason for the laying off of the men was not made plain, further than that there was a general duliness of business.

Give Moonlight Tuesday.

The ladies of the Board of Managers of the Virginia Home for Incurables are making great preparations for their moonlight to Dutch Gap Tuesday evening, June 5th, on the Pocahontas. They promise an evening of great enjoyment to their many friends who will go down with them. An abundance of refreshment in their many friends who will go down with them. An abundance of refreshments, plenty of music, a full moon and good company will serve to make this an evening of pleasure. The advance sale of tickets is very gratifying to the management, and a neat sum will, in all probability, he realized for this very worthy cause. Mrs. J. G. Corley has charge of the musical programme, this in itself beling a guarantee of all that is pleasing in that line. The boat will leave the wharf promptly at 8:30 P. M.

Mr. Andrew J. Ellett, clerk at the Richmond postoffice, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Herman, of Roanoke, has returned home, accompanied by his nieces, Misses Lily and Grace Taylor.

SECRED EVIDENCE $1.50 Men's Negligee Shirts for One Dollar.

Dr. Foster were entirely unexpected. He produced two letters written him by Dr. Foster, which he regarded as being of a friendly nature.

Mr. Clowes told of a trip to Emporia, which he said he took at the request of the board, to secure an assistant physician, but to which Dr. Foster objected. The witness declared that he and Mr. The witness declared that he and all.
Cole did not dominate the affairs of the hospital, but said he had voted to remove the whiskey, to discharge the trained nurse and to turn down Miss Perry and Miss Emory, appointees of the superintendent.

A Gossip.

A Gossip.

Mr. Clowes said that Miss Emory was a gossip and was reduced from supervisor to seamstress for bringing charges against an attendant of the hospital and falling to sustain the charges.

Mr. Clowes asserted that the superintendent was responsible for any negligence or fallure of duty occurring in the asylum, and that this same responsibility obtained in the matter of food, supplies and conduct.

The witness said that the board ordered the payment of all bills and that the superintendent was obliged to obey the orders. He made this assertion several times and then in answer to a question said he had made a mistake and that the board could not order the payments.

Mr. Clowes denied that he had written.

payment of bills but could only authorize payments.

Mr. Clowes denied that he had written Judge Garnett a letter, in which the statement was made that Dr. Henderson was a warm supporter of Governor Montague, and produced a copy of the alleged letter to Judge Garnett, with which to disprove the charge. The last sentence of the letter was as follows:

"Dr. Henderson is a native of Acco-

"Dr. Henderson is a native of Acco mac, and is a warm personal friend of the Governor." (Montague.) Mr. Clowes insisted that words "warm

Mr. Clowes insisted that words warm personal friend," did not mean a supporter.

Dr. Henderson said to-day that Mr. Clowes was misinformed, that he (Henderson) had never met Governor Montague, and so was not his personal friend, but that he was his political supporter, although he had no vote.

In answer to a question by his counsel, Mr. Clowes said that he expected to get the coal from M. O. Brooks for a nominal price.

Coal Not a Gift.

In direct terms, the witness said, Without reservation or equivocation, "Without reservation or equivocation," that he expected to pay a price per ton for the coal; that the coal was not a gift; that he did not expect to get the coal for the price of hauling. Mr. Clowes said he thought the Senate had made a mistake in not ratifying his nomination. Colonel Lawless then took up the matter of the "Bell suicfde."

Mr. Clowes said he did.

Colonel Lawless then asked this question:

"Did you not say in Richmond that the management was to blame, and were you not asked, when you were telling the truth and when you were not telling the truth?"

Colonel Anderson objected on the ground that the "secret records" were being disclosed, and that if Senator Thomas asked such a question it was on indignity to Clowes.

The question was ruled out by Chairman Sadler, and Colonel Lawless was allowed to ask the witness: "Which of the statements are correct."

He replied that both were correct.

Mr. Clowes acknowledged that in his opinion the management was to blame for the "Rell middle".

opinion the management was to blame for the "Bell suicide" on account of the lack of necessary rules,

The Proceedings.

The 22d days' session was called to rder at 9 o'clock, with Mr. E. H. Mr. Clowes said he had differences with Dr. Foster, but that these did not interfere with the pleasant relations which existed.

which existed.

He said that Dr. Foster had opposed his appointment as directors under Gov. Montague on the grounds.

1. That he was unfit for office.

2. That he was not congenial.

3. That he would not confirm his appointees.

4. That he influenced the other members of the board.

5. That he voted for negro Republicans in 1853 (as Foster was informed).

"I will ask it later."
Mr. Clowes:
"I' will withdraw the remark about the Senate, and desire it stricken out."
Dr. Dunn:
"I object to its being stricken out."
MR. CLOWES SAID THAT DR. FOSTER HAD STATED THAT HE (WITNESS) HAD WRITTEN A LETTER TO JUDGE GARNETT, IN WHICH THE JUDGE GARNETT, IN WHICH THE JUDGE GARNETT, IN WHICH THE STATEMENT WAS MADE THAT DR. HENDERSON WAS A WARM SUP-PORTER OF GOVERNOR MONTAGUE WITNESS DENIED THIS POSITIVELY.

Letter to Garnett.

The alleged letter to Judge Garnett was read to the committee. The letter spoke of Dr. Henderson and Dr. Mahood as being good men for positions; criticised Dr. Southall severely. It ended as follows:

as follows:
"DR, HE DERSON IS A NATIVE OF ACCOMAC AND IS A WARM PERSONAJ, FRIEND OF THE GOVERNOR (Mon-

SONAL FRIBND."

(Dr. Henderson testified that he did not know Governor Montague, had not voted for him and had never seen him but once.)

Mr. Clowes said that Dr. Foster had charged that he (Clowes) had accused him (Foster) with forgery. Witness said he had not accused Dr. Foster of forgery, and that he had not said with vile language that he would turn him (Foster) out.

After going over the matter of the dif-ferences between Mr. Clowes and Dr. Foster at length, Mr. Clowes was told to stand aside until Tuesday morning.

Cruelty Charges.

The charges against Dr. McGuire Williams of cruelty were next taken up.
Dr. R. C. Bryan, of Richmond, was placed on the stand. He said he had practiced five years; had had experience before practicing in the wards of Bellevue Hospital. He had heard, he said, that "burning" was an approved method in some hospitals; that the greatest authorities in the country advocated this treatment.
